

Ca' del Bosco, highly thought of in Italy and abroad, processes 50% of its production into sparkling wine, producing a good 650,000 bottles, of which 21% is exported. Top bottlings include Franciacorta Satèn, Franciacorta Brut, Franciacorta Dosage Zero and Franciacorta Anna Maria Clementi, based on highly selected Chardonnay, Pinot Blanc and Pinot Noir grapes.

'We sell well top bottlings of Franciacorta, in particular Ca' del Bosco by the glass as an apéritif,' says Enzo Cassani of the Michelin-starred Zafferano Restaurant in Knightsbridge.
